ABOUT RACQ CQ Rescue

Often a patient's only lifeline, the RACQ CQ Rescue service offers emergency aeromedical and search and rescue assistance to those in dire need.

Operating 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year, the RACQ CQ Rescue helicopter is staffed full time by a highly experienced flight crew consisting of pilots, crewmen, rescue crewmen, critical care doctors and paramedics.

Each year there is an increasing demand on our services and as a community helicopter provider RACQ CQ Rescue looks at many avenues to raise funds so that we can continue to be there when we are needed most.

ABOUT workplace giving

Workplace Giving is an effective way employees can contribute to the lifesaving services at RACQ CQ Rescue.

Workplace giving is a payroll contribution scheme where direct donations from registered employees have a positive and lasting impact in the local community.

HOW IT WORKS:

Donations are deducted each pay period direct from your salary, by arrangement with your employer's payroll department. All you need to do is decide the amount you wish to give, it's that easy. To get started, simply complete this workplace giving form and give it to your payroll officer for processing.

Depending on your employer, if your donations are processed pre-tax, you receive an immediate tax benefit at the time of giving. Alternatively, if your donations are processed from your salary/wage after tax, you will receive a tax benefit when you lodge your annual tax return. All donations of $2 or more are tax deductible.

"Workplace Giving is flexible which means employees can join, modify or withdraw at any time. Best of all, a small contribution from employees each week amounts to a huge outcome for RACQ CQ Rescue!"

Consider the difference you could make to someone's life and sign up for CQ Rescue's Workplace Giving Program today.
